TURCOT-BUSSIERE

The marriage of Miss May Bussiere eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bussiere, Ste. Famille street, to Mr. Joseph Edwin Turcot, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Turcot, of Quebec was celebrated in St. Patrick's Church at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. The Church was exquisitely decorated for the occasion, flowers having been arranged in the aisle; palms, ferns and a profusion of white flowers banked in the chancel and choir loft, and massed about the altar, intermingled with clusters of miniature altar lights. The Rev. Father McShane officiated at the service which was fully choral. Mrs. R. Beauchamp and Mr. McKenna were the soloists while the choruses were sung by the chancel choir of boys, the organist playing the wedding music. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white duchesse satin, with overdress of white filet lace, the bridegroom's gift a bar pin of pearls and diamonds, and a tulle veil arranged under a French bonnet of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Veronica Bussiere attended her sister as bridesmaid, and wore pale pink satin duchesse with pannier overdress of lace, and leg-horn hat trimmed with pink roses, and carried a bouquet of pale pink Killarney roses. She also wore the bridegroom's gift, a necklet of Tennessee pearls. Mr. Turcot was given away by his father, and the ushers were Mr. D. R. Walsh and Mr. F. M. Egan, who each received a stickpin from the bridegroom as a souvenir of the occasion.

Following the ceremony, the wedding breakfast and reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Turcot and bride left by train for Plattsburg. From thence they will go by boat to New York, spending the remainder of the honey moon on the White Mountains. They will reside in Quebec.
